

EAT IN

Amelia Rope Chocolate Cubes

Who said autumn/winter collections were only for fashion? Not Amelia Rope. Keen for chocolate lovers to develop a greater appreciation of fine chocolate, she's put together a trio of seasonal selections which showcase different cocoa beans from around the world. Choose from dark, pale or pale sea salt selection boxes as well as flavours such as dark ginger, mandarin or lemon and sea salt. The chocolates are gluten free, while the dark selection is dairy free and vegan friendly.

£16 for 12 or £29 for 24. Available at independent retailers or ameliarope.com

TAKE OUT

The Modern Pantry

Anna Hansen's celebrated brand of fusion food may be about as far from a kebab as you can get, but if you're lucky enough to live near Clerkenwell, you can still enjoy it as a takeaway. Dishes such as the signature sugar cured prawn omelette, smoky aubergine soup and coconut marinated sea bass are all available for delivery at restaurant prices. And if you live further afield, you can always collect. Slipping it onto plates and pretending you made it yourself when people come over is entirely discretionary.
